

God's Restraining Grace

1 Samuel 25

I. David's Reasonable Request of Nabal.

Where our _____ is left unrestrained, there is no limit to the harm we can inflict upon ourselves or upon others.

II. Abigail's Timely Intervention with David.

What loving hands construct the _____ to our own foolishness.

III. Abigail's Important Announcement to Nabal.

To reject Jesus is a rejection of God's _____, through God's _____, and there will be hell to pay.

IV. David's Kind Invitation to Abigail.

How blessed is the occasion when a sinner receives and accepts the _____ invitation of Christ.