

The Prince of Peace

2 Samuel 3:22-39

I. Joab Accuses David of Being Reckless.

Our _____ are just as dangerous as our actions, though they may be hidden from others, they're not hidden from the _____.

II. The House of Saul Grows Weaker.

We all must be cautious and remember who the _____ truly is, and whose _____ we're striving to expand.

III. David Distances Himself from Joab's Violence.

God help us to have the _____ of our king, to forsake our own _____, and to humbly seek His instead.

IV. David Mourns the Death of Abner.

Jesus is not trigger happy, harsh, reactionary, nor easily exasperated. He is the most _____ person in the universe.
