

Behold, Your King is Coming!

John 12:12-19

I. A Reception for Jesus, Israel's Long-Awaited King.

What this world needs is not a warrior-king, to incite a rebellion, or a puppet-king, to grant our every wish; we need a _____ king, to deliver us from sin and death.

II. A Revelation by Jesus, Israel's Promised Savior-King.

Jesus deserves our allegiance, but he doesn't need it; he is king whether we _____ it or not, and he will be _____ with or without us.

III. A Record of the Reactions to Jesus, Israel's True King.

We must not desire to receive the _____ that Christ might offer, without first embracing the true purpose of his _____ grace.
