

Still Seeking a King

2 Samuel 24:1-25

I. David's Senseless Census.

When any of us delight most in something other than God, we can be assured of _____ results.

II. God's Righteous Wrath.

In the nailed scarred hands of Jesus, sinners will find mercy to be forgiven of sin and _____ from the punishment of sin.

III. God's Mysterious Mercy.

Forgiveness always comes at a _____, ultimately our forgiveness cost Jesus his life.

IV. David's Saving Sacrifice.

Sacrificial giving requires _____ and exhibits faith in the Lord to meet our needs.

V. Samuel's Subtle Anticipation.

Jesus Christ is the only King, who if we receive him, will _____ us, and if we fail him will forgive us.
