

JESUS OPENS BLIND EYES – Part II

John 9:8-41

I. The Neighbors Respond in Confusion and Indecision.

So radical is the _____ made by God's power in a believer's life that it is impossible for it to be _____ from others.

II. The Religious Respond in Discord and Unbelief.

The law was never intended to serve as a _____, that by our obedience we work our way up to God, rather it is like a _____ that reveals our many flaws, and need of a Savior.

III. Jesus Responds with Grace and Justice.

Before anyone can receive spiritual sight, he must first _____ he needs it.

The man who thinks he's good enough, or thinks he knows it all, and does not realize that he cannot see, is the man who is truly _____, beyond help and hope.
